From the Amst. and Leid. Gaz. dated April 24.

Vienna, April 11.

COUNT Sibert of Heister, having visited all the Posts of our Troops in Hungary, and given the necessary Orders there, return'd hither the 6th of this Month, as well to give the Emperour an Account of the true Condition in which he found the Forces in those Parts, as to sollicit the speedy sending of Recruits and other Necessaries that were promis'd him, in order to enable him to act Offensively against the Malecontents in that Kingdom; and we already flatter our selves that he will intirely bring them to Reason the ensuing Campaign. Two Days ago he went hence for Ebenfort to give some Orders there. 3 or 400 Recruits have pass'd through this City in their Way to Hungary: And 300 more are still in our Suburbs, who are forthwith to be sent to Esseck for the Regiment of Heister. The Bishops of Waitzen and Bosnia arriv'd here the 7th of this Month; but went from hence Yesterday to return to the Diet of Presbourg. Our last Advices from thence say, That the Emperour's Plenipotentiaries there have receiv'd a Letter from Prince Ragotski, the Contents of which are not yet known. The same Advices add, that the Malecontents, who had committed some Disorders in our Lines, and in the Neighbourhood of Presbourg, are remov'd towards the Rabau: But they write from Buda, that their Parties are continually abroad in those Parts. Insomuch that there is no Travelling in that Country without danger of falling into their Hands. Our Letters from Transylvania say, that all is quiet in that Principality since the Malecontents have been intirely driven out of it. The Emperour has granted 5 Churches to the Protestants of the Upper Silesia, upon Condition nevertheless that 5 others be granted to the Roman Catholicks in the Places where the Protestants can best spare them: his Imperial Majesty in token of the singular Esteem he has for the King of Sweden, is likewise pleas'd to grant a particular Consistory for these five Churches, and farther Consents, that the Protestants of that Country shall have the Privilege of being employ'd in the Ministry: Nay, 'tis even said that a free Exercise of Religion shall be establish'd in their Favour throughout all Silesia, provided they will give the Emperour a Free-Gift of two Millions. Our Advices from Vienna of the same Date farther add, that Count Wratislau had acquainted M. Sternhoeck with the Emperour's last Resolutions concerning the Affair of Religion in Silesia, telling him that his Imperial Majesty expected the King of Sweden's final Resolution thereupon; and desir'd to know farther, whether Baron Stralenheim, his Swedish Majesty's Envoy, would come to Vienna, to compleat the determination of these Affairs with the Ministers of the Emperour, and with the Deputies of the Protestants of Silesia, who were sent for to that purpose. Our Letters from

Gran say, that the Malcontents are getting together a great Number of Palisado's, and making other Preparations in the Villages of Maspa, Busch and Ebech, to stop up some Passes, by which Succours might be sent to the Towns that lie at greatest distance, and that hold good for the Emperour.

From the Amst. and Leid. Gaz. dated April 27.

Vienna, April 14. General Heister insists that the Emperour would give him full Power to act in Hungary as he thinks fit, without obliging him to write first to the Council of War here. But the States of Hungary, who have continu'd Faithful to the Emperour, sollicit his Imperial Majesty by the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeyts, to give the Command of his Army in that Kingdom to some other General. The Deputies of the Diet of Presbourg have appointed Commissioners to inquire into the Grievances of the Hungarians, to draw them up in Writing, together with the Means they shall judge most proper to Redress them. We have receiv'd Advice that General Heister with a detachment of Dragoons, each of whom had a Foot-Soldier behind him, has driven away the Malecontents from the Neighbourhood of Ebenfort, Oedenbour and Guntz, and forc'd them to fly towards the Rabau. We hear likewise that the 24th of last Month, a Detachment of regular Troops and of some Burghers, who Sally'd out of Alba-Regalis at break of Day, Surpriz'd the Malecontents who Block'd up that Place, kill'd many of them upon the Spot, took about half of them Prisoners, and put the rest to flight. They took likewise three Colours, and 122 Horses. They write from Great Waradin, that Prince Ragotski, Count Caroli, and the Minister of the French King, who attends them, had laid a Design to possess themselves of that Place, by causing the Magazine of Powder to be blown up, and by Massacring the Governor and his whole Garrison. But that this Plot was timely discover'd by a Walachian, who was to have set Fire to the Magazine.

From the Antwerp Gazette, dated April 27.

Vienna, April 11. They write from Altenbourg, that the Malecontents have broke up the Blockade of Edelbourg, but that they had laid Siege to the Castle of Satwar, and began to Canonade it on the 6th Instant. Letters from Presbourg of the 7th and of the 9th of this Month say, that by Prince Ragotski's Order, 20 or 30 Pieces of Cannon were sent from Neuheutel to Hatuan, which gave yet more and more Grounds to fear that the Malecontents would undertake the Siege of Pest and Buda; but that the Imperialists had taken Care to put those Places into a Posture of Defence. The Emperour's Plenipotentiaries who are at Presbourg hope to bring the Diet there to a good End in a very short time. Our Advices from Segedin say, that the River Tisca swell'd on a sudden to such a degree, that it had done a great deal of Damage to the Country. Letters from Presbourg Advise, that they heard great Canonading, which made them believe that the Malecontents had besieg'd Satwar. General Heister

Hastie set out two Days ago a second time for Hungary, upon the Assurance, that were given him that before the End of this Month, the Emperour will encrease his Troops in Hungary to 28000 Men, and supply him with all things necessary to act Offensively against the Malecontents.

Dr. Anderson's, or the famous Scots Pills, are by her Majesty's Authority faithfully prepar'd only by Mrs. Inglish from Edinburg, now living at the Golden Unicorn over-against the May-Pole in the Strand, London, and to prevent Counterfeits from Scotland as well as in and about London, you are desir'd to take notice, that the true Pills have their Boxes seal'd on the Top (in black Wax) with a Lion Rampant, and 3 Mullets Argent, Dr. Anderson's Head betwixt I. L. with his Name round it, and Isabella Inglish underneath the Shield in a Scroll. They are of Excellent use to be taken with Epion, Tunbridge, or other Medicinal Waters. Beware of Counterfeits, especially of an Ignorant pretender one Musken, who keeps a China Shop, and is so unneighbourly as to pretend to sell the same Pills within 2 Doors of me. I. Inglish.

And where is it pretended that at the said Muffins, there's an Act of the Privy Council of Scotland, to be seen in favour of Mrs. Steel. This is to satisfy the Publick, that the said Act of Council was surreptitiously procur'd by Tho. Steel her Brother, for which he was by Act of Council denounc'd Rebel, and his Moveables were confiscted, as appears by the Records of the Privy Council of Scotland.

The Famous Royal-Eſſence for the Hair of the Head, Perriwigs, &c. being the moſt delightfully charming Perfume in Nature, excellently beneficial to Health, and the beſt Preserver of Hair in the World, keeping that of Perriwigs in the Curl, and all Hair from fading or changing Colour; makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and infallibly keeps it from falling off, or splitting at the Ends. By its incomparable Perfume it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raises the Vapours in Ladies; it also scents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been fo exceedingly admir'd and valud by the Nobility and Gentry, it has been bafely counterfeited, therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Alcraft's, a Toyshop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy, against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottile, with Directions.

The Family Eſſence for all manner of Aches and Pains, or Strains, Weaknes, or Loss of the Use of the Limbs, Lamens, the Sciatica, Numbnes, Trembling, Palsey, Convulsions, or Cramp in any part. It is a noble Medicament, far above the Sphere of ignorant Pretenders; and doth that in one Day, which filthy greasy Oils, or Ointments, could never do. It neither wets like Water, greeſes like Oil, or fouls the fineſt Linnen, but momentarily enters in, and suddenly takes away the oldeſt Grief even to astonishment, after a 1000 other things have been us'd in vain. Sold at John's Coffee-Houſe in Swithins-Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleetſtree, price 2 s. the Viol.

The Princeſly Perfume. Being a moſt delightful Powder, which incomparably scents Handkerchiefs, Gloves, and all Sorts of Linnen, making them ſmell moſt deliciously odoriferous, fine and charming; it perfumes the Hands, the Hair of the Head, and Perriwig moſt delicately, also all Manner of Cloaths, Beds, Rooms, Scrutores, Prefes, Drawers Boxes, and all other Things, giving them a moſt admirable, pleasant and durable Scent, which is ſo curioſly fragrant, ſo delectably ſweet, reviving and enlivening, that no Perfume or Aromatick in the World, can poſſibly come near it: It never raises the Vapours in Ladies, but by its delicious Odour, Fragrance and charming Perfume, (which is really ſuperior to all other Scents upon Earth) it refreshes the Memory, cures the Head-ach, takes away Dulnes and Melancholy, makes the Heart glad, and encreaseth all the Spirits, Natural, Vital and Animal, to a Wonder. It is told only at Mr. Alcraft's Toy-ſhop, at the Blue-coat-boy, againſt the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Glafs, with Directions.

An Incomparabile Powder for Cleaning of Silver Lace, and Orraces: As also Silver Tables, or Silks flower'd with Silver, with Silver Trimmings on Waffcoats, as the Buttons or Button-holes; and all sorts of Silver Trimmings belonging to wearing Apparel, with little or no Trouble, by taking off the Tarnish, tho' never ſo much, or never fo dirty, making it of as good and bright Lutre, as if but juſt out of the Shops, and ſo continues it as long as when new; it being a Chymical Preparation, much commended and approved by all that uſe it. Is Sold only by Mrs. Kirton at the Salmon and Trout, Toy-ſhop, in St. Paul's Church-yard, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions.

Just publish'd, The Bankrupt's Directory: Or, Suitable Rules and Directions, both for Bankrupt and Creditor, how to manage their Affairs to the beſt Adantage, for the Ease and Satisfaction of all Parties, conform to the feveral Statutes made concerning Bankrupts, to this Day. Together with an Alphabetical List of all thoſe Persons, who have ſurrender'd themſelves to, or have been ſummon'd to be examined by the Commissioners, according to the two laſt Acts of Parliament; the one entitl'd, An Act to prevent Frauds frequently committed by Bankrupts; the other, An Act to explain and amend the ſaid Act. Sold by J. Morphew near Stationers-Hall, price 1 s.

To Morrow will be publish'd, Miscellaneous Reflections, occaſion'd by the Comet which appear'd in December 1680. chiefly tending to explode Popular Superſtitios. Written to a Doctor of the Sorbon, by Mr. Bayle. Translated from the French. To which is added the Author's Life, in a Letter to a Peer of Great Britain. In 2 Volumes. Printed for J. Morphew near Stationers-Hall, where may be had Mr. Hole's Expofition of the Church-Catechism, and the 2 Volumes of the Phenix.

Next Week will be publish'd, Ignoramus. Comœdia coram Rege Jacobo & Tocius Anglie Magnatibus per Academicos Cantabrigiensis habita. Editio Quinta, in MSS. emendatior. Autore Mro. Ruggie, Aula Clarenſia. A. M. Sold by J. Morphew near Stationers-Hall, price bound 1 s. 6 d.

An Effay upon the Character of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough. In a Letter to a Gentleman in Portugal. Printed for R. Knaplock at the Bishop's-Head in St. Paul's Church-yard.
